FORCED TO VACATE! BUILDING SOLD

This Letter from F. W. Woolworth Co., the New Owners,
Will Explain Itself

OFFICE OF
HASKINS & SCHWENK
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW
3 CROSBY BLOCK

A. F. SCHWENK

BRATTLEBORO, VT., May 1, 1916.

Messrs. Goodnow, Pearson & Hunt,
Town.

Gentlemen:

As attorney for F. W. Woolworth Company, the present owners of the Pratt Block, so-called, I hereby give you notice to vacate the store now occupied by you in said Pratt Block and the basement in the same, on or before the first day of July, 1916.

F. W. Woolworth Co.

By A. F. SCHWENK
Attorney

We have only a little more than a month to dispose of our immense new Spring stock, many lines of which have not even now completely arrived.

We have not been able to make adequate arrangements for a new store for our future needs and therefore have decided to close out this stock just where it is in the few weeks which will elapse before we are obliged to vacate.

Most of this merchandise was bought at prices 25% to 50% lower than such merchandise could be replaced for today.

Such an opportunity to purchase Men's and Boys' high grade Clothing and Furnishings Goods, as well as Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases, should be taken prompt advantage of by every thrifty buyer.

Even the regular prices at which we have been selling these goods will look startlingly cheap a few months hence.

It is useless for us to enumerate prices. Suffice it is to say we have to vacate and the goods must be sold.

SALE WILL BE READY TOMORROW MORNING

Goodnow, Pearson & Hunt
